

ETI Website Login Instructions

ETI has launched our new website which will give you access to your business' network documentation as well as our new Help Desk to create service requests, read our Knowledge Base, among other features!

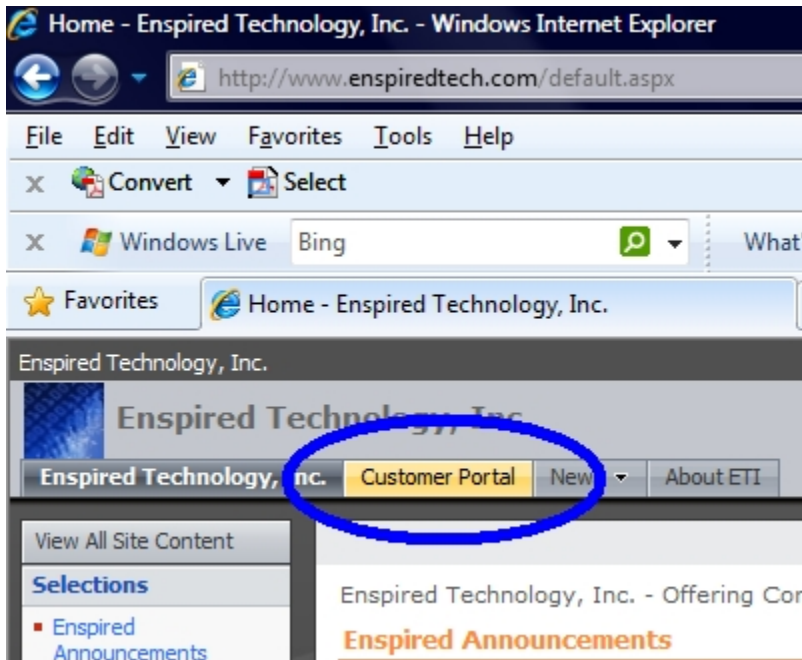

As a customer of ETI, we have created a login username and password for you to access your site's information. Keep your username and password information secured as you will have access to your site's security information, billable hour details, invoices, and much more!

If you need another login for an employee who you would like to have access to your site's information, please request another login via email at: Info@EnspiredTech.com. This will ensure your username and password will not become compromised.

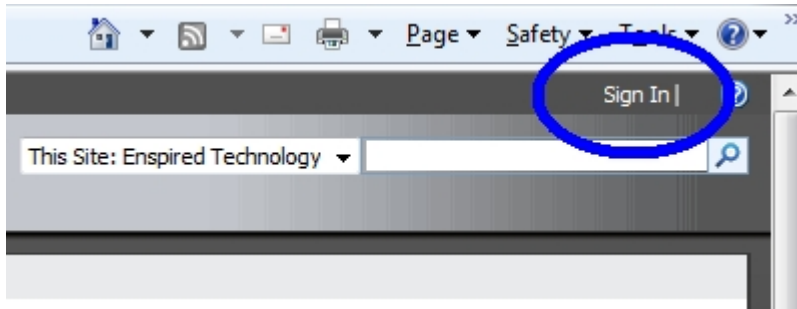

Step 1 – Open your browser and go to: www.enspiredtech.com.

Step 2 – Click on Customer Portal.

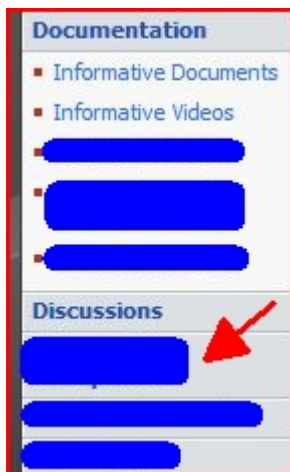

Step 3 – At the top-right of the website, click Sign In.

Step 4 – Type in the username and password that was sent to you from ETI, via email.

Step 5 – On the left-hand side of the website, click on your company name.

This will open up your ETI customer page.

At this point, you should see your site documentation as well as Informative Documents and Informative Videos you can read and watch!
